

HOW TO SHOUT OUT YOUR PRINCIPAL

Shout -out

noun [informal]

a public expression of thanks or gratitude.

There are 1,291 female principals in New Zealand - and they all deserve a shout-out.

Springboard Trust helped to make a difference with 232 female principals and teachers last year...

but we could use your help with the rest!

71

Strategic Leadership for Principals Programme

161

Alumni Services programmes and workshops

Principals don't just lead schools. They work with whole communities to improve students' lives.

Students

Boards of Trustees

Parents and whānau

Government

Teachers and leaders

Let's be better together: Shout out a principal this International Women's Day

Make a giant banner!

Shout them out online!

Get them a gift!

Tell them how they've made a difference!

Whisper it quietly if they are shy!

Ask what they need!